ORDER:

In rule 5(b) of the Special Rules for the Madras Medical Service, provision exists for the appointment of Non-clinical and Clinical Lecturers, Tutors or Assistants, etc. as Supernumerary Civil Surgeons. Officiating Professors are also appointed as Supernumerary Civil Surgeons, when their juniors in the cadre of Assistant Surgeons are promoted as Civil Surgeons in the General line, in order to protect their interests on possible reversion. Such of those officers who have no substantive appointments, have probationary rights, which are as good as liens, on their appointment as Assistant Surgeons till they get confirmation as Professors, and it is in their capacity as Assistant Professors or Lecturers they are promoted as Supernumerary Civil Surgeons. In order to avoid ambiguity in the rule, the Government have decided to amplify the rule to explicitly cover the cases of these officiating Professors for appointment as Supernumerary Civil Surgeons.
